

The Poster draft, due at the start of class on March 31, must be an electronic version of the poster burned onto a disc. Each research team is required to produce an electronic version of the Poster, which may be designed in PowerPoint, Microsoft Publisher, Adobe, or other suitable software program. The draft will be submitted to the instructor, and he will offer feedback to research teams for changes, improvements that can be made for the Final Poster.